

Will you be proud or regretful when you look back on your school career?

I know you have "greatness" in your future!

You have the type of energy around you that people want to follow. I know you will always strive to be the positive leader I am sure you were meant to be!

Super duper, little pooper scooper!

Have faith in yourself. You have got this!

Your behavior means more to me than your grades.

I saw you helping that student in the hall when everyone else walked past. I got to see one of your best traits, and it makes me so very happy!

Thank you for telling me what's going on at home. I am sorry that happened and you do not deserve to have that happen to you. Let's go get help to fix this together.

You make me a better teacher.

Everyone is unique. Who told you you were normal?
